AT GUARD CAMP:

vening, Nov. 22, a dinner was given by the trustees of the Kamehameha schools to the graduates and former students then in camp at Kawailoa with the national guard. Nearly all of the 66 guardsmen who are graduates or former students of the Kamehameha school for boys were present, and it is interesting to note that of this total number 22 are commissioned officers and that of the enlisted men nearly half are non-commissioned officers.

Nearly every graduating class from 1894 to 1917 and all of the islands represented. Besides the guardsmen, W. O. Smith, Albert F. Judd. William Williamson of the board of trustees, President Webster, Captain C. R. Bostwick, principal of the boys' school; E. E. Youtz, the schools' chaplain, and Uldrick Thompson, who has been with the schools nearly 39 years, were present.

The Kamehameha Alumni Associapresident, Lieut, Harold Godfrey, by Joseph Ordenstein, treasurer; Rudolph Duncan, chairman of the membership committee; Supervisor William Ahia and Messrs. Wongham and Awana, who went down from town for the occasion. After the dinner, which was served at 2:30 to allow the officers ample time to return to camp for officers' school at 7:30, each of the trustees and an officer from each of the camp, well pleased with the entertainment and the opportunity of meeting again as sons of Kamehameha.

The guardsmen present were: Captains Henry Robinson, C. N. Arnold. George L. Desha, 1st Lieutenants A. K. Hanchett, C. K. Chung, Wm. K. Scholtz, George W. Baker, William K. Peters, 2nd Lieutenants D.
